In the latest installment of the hippest wine & fashion collaboration, Belle Glos & Kenny Flowers up the game by offering a limited-edition wine meant to pair perfectly with their tasty print. Dress to impress in the summer heat, and have your fit match your red-waxed wine.

Last year, fifth-generation Napa Valley winemaker Joe Wagner partnered with his favorite upscale tropical clothing brand Kenny Flowers in celebration of each other's craft and appreciation for those living life unbuttoned. The limited-edition men's short sleeve button downs and women's dresses were such a hit amongst customers that they sold out in less than 3 weeks! Now, the styles are back for a limited run – and designed to pair perfectly with a special limited run wine developed by Belle Glos to celebrate the successful collaboration. Less than a year after their first partnership, the brands are doubling down with an even richer collaboration.

The 2022 Belle Glos x Kenny Flowers Eulenloch 'Block 2' Pinot Noir ($85) is available for purchase at the Belle Glos tasting room in downtown Napa and online at belleglos.com/collection/belle-glos.

Shop the limited-edition shirts & dresses via the Kenny Flowers website kennyflowers.com/collections/belle-glos-x-kenny-flowers ($88-$168)
